Our School's New Leadership Team

The St. Pius V community is pleased to introduce our new leadership team: Principal Mary Beth Noé and Vice Principal Mrs. Darlene Hallisey.

Mrs. Noé has been in education for 32 years in both public and Catholic schools and is delighted to have taken the next step into a leadership position at St. Pius V School.

Mrs. Hallisey is a proud parent of three St. Pius V alumni. She began working at SPVS in 2004, and was our third grade teacher for 15 years. She is excited to have entered this new role as Vice Principal.

Blessings this Advent Season

Students in all grades are celebrating Advent with prayers, lessons, and activities.

We wish all our Alumni, Benefactors, and friends a blessed Advent and a very Merry Christmas!

Alumni Updates & News

Alumna DR. MARY (GILHOOLEY) DILL '73 has retired after 40 years in the field of education, including 23 years as school principal at Lynn public schools. We are grateful that she has given back to our community in such a meaningful and impactful way. Read more about her retirement HERE.

The Lynn Police Department swore in several new officers this fall, among them is alumnus ROBERT LIBERGE '08. Alumni DANIEL ASHWELL, KAYLIN DECHENES, and MEGHAN SULLIVAN have also been sworn in during these past few years. They join St. Pius alumni LT. GLENN DUNNIGAN, LT. ROBERT AVERY, SGT. MICHAEL MCHALE, and several other alumni and parents of students who currently serve on the LPD. Officer Meghan Sullivan was named "Officer of the Month" for September after demonstrating exceptional dedication in the performance of her duties. Read more HERE. We are grateful and proud to have all of these officers serving and protecting our city!

Alumnus DUNCAN WEBB '96 has been entered into the St. John's Prep Athletic Hall of Fame this October for his achievements in baseball. After graduating from SJP in '00, he went on to play and coach baseball at Amherst College. He currently serves as the Sr. Director of Baseball Resources for the Los Angeles Dodgers!
